

THE PRAYERS OF ASTROMANCE

By Joseph Green

ADMIRE

The gecko walked out from the chamber of darkness and looked about in the moonlight and he was disturbed by the faults of some things so he became obsessed with sending them away to the loneliness of other planets until their intricate parts moved in perfect harmony. However all those things had a reason to be on the earth so the souls magnified the qualities beyond the sea of thoughts and vanquished the gecko while the clocks turned twice around. The sun was at its zenith during the great celebration and the dogs barked to announce the coming of a witch called Astromance to earth. She wore a crown of rubies and diamonds and numerous qualities penetrated her soul including a voice who declared that two things in love would not live apart so numerous fabrics were woven together and all things could pray together. Astromance revealed 255 prayers contained within a complex frame and the prayers demonstrated the importance of magic in bringing about all kinds of things on the earth so Astromance could admire them

OUR HEARTS BELIEVE IN MAGIC WHEN WE LOOK AT THINGS WHICH

ASTROMANCE

INTRODUCTION

the knowing of the infinite brings you closer to your destiny whose romance is discovered in the arms of starlight while immortality is achieved and you celebrate with strange black hats while the suns disappear beneath the paddocks where in the darkness you fall asleep and dream of many awesome treasures buried deep in the chasms of time and you become aware of a great love with whose kiss you are woken so you face the possibility of magic existing in a world whose knowledge explains how she works but never explains why

CONCLUSION

love is the key ingredient of the universe whose womb holds the flowers which lovers like to bring into their lives to make the birds sing what flower should i give you on our lovers altar to shadow all the devils and bring you into power the full moon glows with magic and your legs make me wonder about your soul in its pale spooky light what magic feelings am i feeling with you tonight when you hold me close and play with me while the shadows creep about
